

Child Protection Policy

Introduction

The vast majority of people involved in sporting activities derive interest and pleasure from the footage captured by FilmMyMatch and from the enjoyment shown by the participants.

Events, by their nature, are in the public arena and when entering for an event the participant acknowledges this fact, and that at least professionally approved camera operative may capture video footage. FilmMyMatch will take all reasonable precautions to protect participants against the possible inappropriate use of video footage.

Policy statement

FilmMyMatch has a duty of care to safeguard all children from harm. All children have a right to protection, and the needs of disabled children and others who may be particularly vulnerable must be taken into account.

FilmMyMatch will ensure the safety and protection of all children at events where FilmMyMatch are in attendance through adherence to the Child Protection guidelines adopted by FilmMyMatch.

The FilmMyMatch Code of Ethics and Conduct is adhered to by all our camera operatives and staff.

A child is defined as a person under the age of 18 (The Children Act 1989).

Policy aims

The aim of the FilmMyMatch Child Protection Policy is to promote good practice by:

- providing children and young people with appropriate safety and protection whilst at events
- allowing staff to make informed and confident responses to specific child protection issues.

All camera operatives and support staff at FilmMyMatch must ensure that:

- the welfare of the child is paramount
- all children, whatever their age, culture, disability, gender, language, racial origin religious beliefs and/or sexual identity have the right to protection from abuse
- all suspicions and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately
- all concerns are reported to the appropriate officer

FilmMyMatch staff are not trained to deal with situations of abuse or to decide if abuse has occurred.

Promoting good practice

Child abuse, particularly sexual abuse, can arouse strong emotions in those facing such a situation. It is important to understand these feelings and not allow them to interfere with your judgment about the appropriate action to take.

Abuse can occur within many situations including the home, school and the sporting environment. Some individuals will actively seek employment or voluntary work with young people in order to harm them.

FilmMyMatch camera operatives and staff will have regular contact with young people and can be an important link in identifying cases where they need protection. All suspicious cases of poor practice should be reported following the guidelines in this document.

Good practice guidelines

All FilmMyMatch staff are encouraged to demonstrate exemplary behaviour in order to protect themselves from false allegations. The following are common sense examples of how to create a positive culture and climate.

Good practice means:

- always working in an open environment (eg avoiding private or unobserved situations and encouraging open communication with no secrets)
- treating all young people/disabled adults equally, and with respect and dignity
- always putting the welfare of each young person first, before winning or achieving goals
- maintaining a safe and appropriate distance with players (eg it is not appropriate for staff or volunteers to have an intimate relationship with a child or to share a room with them)
- physical contact should be avoided. Young people should always be consulted and their agreement gained. Some parents are becoming increasingly sensitive about physical contact and their views should always be carefully considered
- keeping up to date with technical skills and insurance in capturing video footage
- involving parents/carers wherever possible. For example, encouraging them to take responsibility for their children in our working environment. If groups have to be supervised, always ensure to work in pairs
- ensuring that if mixed teams are taken away, they should always be accompanied by a male and female member of staff. However, remember that same gender abuse can also occur
- ensuring that at tournaments or residential events, adults should not enter children's rooms or invite children into their rooms
- being an excellent role model - this includes not smoking or drinking alcohol in the company of young people
- giving enthusiastic and constructive feedback rather than negative criticism.

Practices to be avoided

The following should be avoided except in emergencies.

- spending excessive amounts of time alone with children away from others
- taking or dropping off a child to an event.

If cases arise where these situations are unavoidable it should be with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge at the event or the child's parents. For example, if a child sustains an injury and needs to go to hospital, or a parent fails to arrive to pick a child up at the end of an event.

Practices never to be sanctioned

The following should never be sanctioned. You should never:

- engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games, including horseplay
- share a room with a child
- allow or engage in any form of inappropriate touching
- allow children to use inappropriate language unchallenged
- make sexually suggestive comments to a child, even in fun
- reduce a child to tears as a form of control
- allow allegations made by a child to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon
- do things of a personal nature for children or disabled adults, that they can do for themselves
- invite or allow children to stay with you at your home unsupervised.

It may sometimes be necessary for staff or volunteers to do things of a personal nature for children, particularly if they are young or are disabled. These tasks should only be carried out with the full understanding and consent of parents and the players involved.

There is a need to be responsive to a person's reactions. If a person is fully dependent on you, talk with him/her about what you are doing and give choices where possible. This is particularly so if you are involved in any dressing or undressing of outer clothing, or where there is physical contact, lifting or assisting a child to carry out particular activities. Avoid taking on the responsibility for tasks for which you are not appropriately trained.

Incidents that must be reported/recorded

If any of the following occur you should report this immediately to another colleague and record the incident. You should also ensure the parents of the child are informed:

- if you accidentally hurt a child
- if he/she seems distressed in any manner
- if a child appears to be sexually aroused by your actions

- if a player misunderstands or misinterprets something you have done.

Recruitment and training of staff and volunteers

FilmMyMatch recognises that anyone may have the potential to abuse children in some way and that all reasonable steps are taken to ensure unsuitable people are prevented from working with children. Preselection checks must include the following:

- all volunteers/staff should complete an application form. The application form will elicit information about an applicant's past and a self-disclosure about any criminal record
- consent should be obtained from an applicant to seek information from the Criminal Records Bureau.
- two confidential references, including one regarding previous work with children. These references must be taken up and confirmed through telephone contact.
- evidence of identity (passport or driving licence with photo).

Interview and Induction

All employees (and volunteers) will be required to undergo an interview carried out to acceptable protocol and recommendations. All employees and volunteers should receive formal or informal induction, during which:

- a check should be made that the application form has been completed in full (including sections on criminal records and self-disclosures)
- their qualifications should be substantiated
- the job requirements and responsibilities should be clarified
- they should sign up to the organisation's Code of Ethics and Conduct
- child protection procedures are explained and training needs are identified.

Training

In addition to preselection checks, the safeguarding process includes training after recruitment to help staff and volunteers to:

- analyse their own practice against established good practice, and to ensure their practice is likely to protect them from false allegations
- recognise their responsibilities and report any concerns about suspected poor practice or possible abuse
- respond to concerns expressed by a child or young person
- work safely effectively with children.

FilmMyMatch requires:

- camera operatives and staff to read and understand the FilmMyMatch Child Protection Policy and Code of Ethics and Conduct, to ensure their practice is exemplary and to facilitate the development of a positive culture towards good practice and child protection

- relevant personnel to receive advisory information outlining good practice and informing them about what to do if they have concerns about the behaviour of an adult towards a young person
- relevant personnel to gain a national first aid training (where necessary).
- relevant personnel attend update training when deemed necessary by FilmMyMatch.

Responding to allegations or suspicions

It is not the responsibility of anyone working for FilmMyMatch, in a paid or unpaid capacity, to decide whether or not child abuse has taken place. However there is a responsibility to act on any concerns through contact with the appropriate authorities.

FilmMyMatch will assure all staff/volunteers that it will fully support and protect anyone, who in good faith reports his or her concern that a colleague is, or may be, abusing a child.

Where there is a complaint against a member of staff there may be three types of investigation:

- a criminal investigation
- a child protection investigation
- a disciplinary or misconduct investigation.

The results of the police and child protection investigation may well influence the disciplinary investigation, but not necessarily.

Action if there are concerns

Concerns about poor practice:

- if, following consideration, the allegation is clearly about poor practice the Child Protection Officer will deal with it as a misconduct issue
- if the allegation is about poor practice by the Child Protection Officer, or if the matter has been handled inadequately and concerns remain, it should be reported to the relevant (Sport Governing Body) officer who will decide how to deal with the allegation and whether or not to initiate disciplinary proceedings.

Concerns about suspected abuse:

- any suspicion that a child has been abused by either a member of staff or a volunteer should be reported to the Child Protection Officer, who will take such steps as considered necessary to ensure the safety of the child in question and any other child who may be at risk
- the Child Protection Officer will refer the allegation to the social services department who may involve the police, or go directly to the police if out-of-hours
- the parents or carers of the child will be contacted as soon as possible following advice from the social services department

- the Child Protection Officer should also notify the relevant (Sport Governing Body) officer who in turn will inform the (Sport Governing Body) Child Protection Officer who will deal with any media enquiries
- if the Child Protection Officer is the subject of the suspicion/allegation, the report must be made to the appropriate Manager or in his/her absence the (Sport Governing Body) Child Protection Officer who will refer the allegation to Social Services.

Confidentiality

Every effort should be made to ensure that confidentiality is maintained for all concerned. Information should be handled and disseminated on a need to know basis only. This includes the following people:

- the Child Protection Officer
- the parents of the person who is alleged to have been abused
- the person making the allegation
- Social Services/police
- the alleged abuser (and parents if the alleged abuser is a child)

Seek social services advice on who should approach the alleged abuser.

Information should be stored in a secure place with limited access to designated people, in line with data protection laws (e.g. that information is accurate, regularly updated, relevant and secure).

Internal Enquiries and Suspension

The FilmMyMatch Child Protection Officer will make an immediate decision about whether any individual accused of abuse should be temporarily suspended pending further police and social services inquiries

Irrespective of the findings of the social services or police inquiries the FilmMyMatch Disciplinary Committee will assess all individual cases to decide whether a member of staff or volunteer can be reinstated and how this can be sensitively handled.

This may be a difficult decision, particularly where there is insufficient evidence to uphold any action by the police. In such cases, the FilmMyMatch Disciplinary Committee must reach a decision based upon the available information which could suggest that on a balance of probability, it is more likely than not that the allegation is true. The welfare of the child should remain of paramount importance throughout

Support to deal with the aftermath of abuse

Consideration should be given to the kind of support that children, parents and members of staff may need. Use of helplines, support groups and open meetings will maintain an open culture and help the healing process.

The British Association for Counselling Directory is available from The British Association for Counselling, 1 Regent Place, Rugby CV21 2PJ. Tel: 01788 550899. Fax: 01788 562189. E-mail: bac@bacp.co.uk. Internet: <http://www.bacp.co.uk>.

Consideration should also be given to what kind of support may be appropriate for the alleged perpetrator.

Allegations of previous abuse

Allegations of abuse may be made some time after the event (eg by an adult who was abused as a child or by a member of staff who is still currently working with children).

Where such an allegation is made, the above procedures should be followed and the matter reported to the social services or the police. This is because other children, either within or outside sport, may be at risk from this person. Anyone who has a previous criminal conviction for offences related to abuse is automatically excluded from working with children. This is reinforced by the details of the Protection of Children Act 1999.

Action if bullying is suspected

If bullying is suspected, the same procedure should be followed as set out in 'Responding to suspicions or allegations' above.

Action to help the victim and prevent bullying in sport:

- take all signs of bullying very seriously
- encourage all children to speak and share their concerns (it is believed that up to 12 children per year commit suicide as a result of bullying, so if anyone talks about or threatens suicide, seek professional help immediately). Help the victim to speak out and tell the person in charge or someone in authority. Create an open environment
- investigate all allegations and take action to ensure the victim is safe. Speak with the victim and the bully(ies) separately
- reassure the victim that you can be trusted and will help them, although you cannot promise to tell no one else
- keep records of what is said (what happened, by whom, when)
- report any concerns to the Child Protection Officer or the school (wherever the bullying is occurring).

Action towards the bully(ies)

- talk with the bully(ies), explain the situation, and try to get the bully(ies) to understand the consequences of their behaviour. Seek an apology to the victim(s)
- inform the bully's parents
- insist on the return of 'borrowed' items and that the bully(ies) compensate the victim
- provide support for the victim's coach
- impose sanctions as necessary
- encourage and support the bully(ies) to change behaviour
- hold meetings with the families to report on progress
- inform all organisation members of action taken
- keep a written record of action taken.

Concerns outside the immediate sporting environment (eg a parent or carer):

- report your concerns to the Child Protection Officer, who should contact social services or the police as soon as possible
- if the Child Protection Officer is not available, the person being told of or discovering the abuse should contact social services or the police immediately
- Social Services and the Child Protection Officer will decide how to involve the parents/carers
- the Child Protection Officer should also report the incident to the relevant sports Governing Body. The Governing Body should ascertain whether or not the person/s involved in the incident play a role in FilmMyMatch and act accordingly
- maintain confidentiality on a need to know basis only
- see below regarding information needed for social services.

Information for social services or the police about suspected abuse:

To ensure that this information is as helpful as possible, a detailed record should always be made at the time of the disclosure/concern, which should include the following:

- the child's name, age and date of birth
- the child's home address and telephone number
- whether or not the person making the report is expressing their own concerns or those of someone else
- the nature of the allegation. Include dates, times, any special factors and other relevant information
- make a clear distinction between what is fact, opinion or hearsay
- a description of any visible bruising or other injuries. Also any indirect signs, such as behavioural changes
- details of witnesses to the incidents
- the child's account, if it can be given, of what has happened and how any bruising or other injuries occurred
- have the parents been contacted?
- if so what has been said?
- has anyone else been consulted? If so record details
- if the child was not the person who reported the incident, has the child been spoken to? If so what was said?
- has anyone been alleged to be the abuser? Record details
- where possible referral to the police or social services should be confirmed in writing within 24 hours and the name of the contact who took the referral should be recorded.

If you are worried about sharing concerns about abuse with a senior colleague, you can contact social services or the police direct, or the NSPCC Child Protection Helpline on 0808 800 5000, or Childline on 0800 1111.
